UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

v.

23 Cr. 375 (RA)

Starley Pena,

Defendant.

Attorney-Client Privilege Waiver (Informed Consent)

To: Starley Pena

You have filed a petition pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255 on the ground of ineffective assistance of counsel by your former counsel, Robert Alexander Osuna, Esq., of the Law Firm of Robert Osuna, P.C. (see Dkt. No. 23). The Court has reviewed your papers and determined that the Court needs to have a sworn testimonial statement from your former attorneys in order to evaluate your petition.

By filing this petition, you have waived the attorney-client privilege you had with your former counsel to the extent relevant to determining your claims. This means that, if you wish to press your claims of ineffective assistance, you cannot keep the communications between yourself and your former attorneys a secret — You must allow them to be disclosed to the Government and to the Court pursuant to court order. The Court already has issued an Order ordering your former counsel to give such testimony, in the form of a declaration. This Informed Consent form is designed to ensure that you fully understand and agree to this.

Specifically, if you wish to proceed with your petition on the basis that you received ineffective assistance of counsel, you must sign this statement and return it to the Court. The form constitutes your authorization to your former counsel to disclose confidential communications (1) only in response to a court order and (2) only to the extent necessary to shed light on the allegations of ineffective assistance of counsel that are raised by your motion.

You should know that, if you sign this authorization, you run the risk that your former counsel will contradict your statements about their representation of you. However, you should also know that the Court may deny your motion if you do not authorize your former counsel to give an affidavit in response to the Court's attached Order.

You must return this form with your signature within twenty-one days from the date on which you are served with this Order. If the Court does not receive this form with your signature within that time, the Court may deny your motion.

AUTHORIZATION

I have read the Court's Order dated October 29, 2024 and this document headed Attorney-Client Privilege Waiver (Informed Consent). I hereby authorize my former counsel, Robert Alexander Osuna, Esq., of the Law Firm of Robert Osuna, P.C., to comply with the Court's Order by giving testimony, in the form ordered by the Court, relating to my petition pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255 on the ground of ineffective assistance of counsel. This authorization allows my former attorneys to testify only pursuant to court order, and only to the extent necessary to shed light on the allegations of ineffective assistance of counsel that are raised by my motion.
